

Booking Request Information

As the event dates are approaching, hotel availability in the city is now very limited. Special SDT 2026 rates may still be available but are subject to the hotel's availability at the time of booking.

If you would like to book accommodation at Ibis Budget Genève Palexpo, please send your request directly to:

HA8F2-RE@accor.com

To help the hotel process your request, please include the following information in your email:

- Mention that you are attending SDT 2026
- Number of room(s) required
- Check-in and check-out dates
- Number of guests per room

The hotel will review your request and do its best to accommodate you at the best available rate, subject to availability.

Please note that neither room availability nor special event rates can be guaranteed at this stage.
